

1 NABIL & LENA COSTA Christar, Lebanon

Please pray for the Church as it seeks to comfort and serve the distressed and brokenhearted. Pray for LSES/MEBO family of ministries and specifically for the Beirut Baptist School and Gateway Bookshop which suffered important material damage. Pray for the staff who have been injured by the glass debris as a result of the massive blast in the port of Beirut on August 4. Pray for people who are in places of responsibility as they manage the catastrophic human and economic consequences.

2 DON & LYNDA PEDERSON Ethnos360, USA

Don has been approved for the Proton Radiation Therapy which is less invasive and more precise. He is in good spirits and they are trusting the Lord as they move forward.

3 BRIAN & ARIEL DICKS AMG, Hungary

Praise God that they have secured tickets to the field and will be there in time for the new school year. Brian is teaching part-time at the International Christian School of Budapest.

4 D & C Asia

Their plan, (which they hold to loosely during these times), is to secure a long-term visa within the next couple of months, then return to Taiwan. Please pray that God will confirm or redirect their plans according to His knowledge and will.

5 DON & SUSIE NEWBY Greater Europe Mission, USA/Europe

Pray for continued contact via Zoom with Germans and Austrians. Pray for opportunities to share Christ and for work with believers on music projects. Please also pray for the annual GEM conference taking place virtually for GEM missionaries in Europe. Pray their hearts will be encouraged.

6 ERIN SCHIPPER OM, USA/Worldwide

Pray for people affected by the coronavirus and ministry implications around the world.

7 J & R Central Asia

Pray as they meet and worship with house churches in their ministry country through various communication links.

8 ROSS & ROULA GEORGIU Campus Crusade for Christ, Germany

Pray for their current efforts in preparing 18 new countries to become members of the Global Sports Chaplaincy Association. Please pray for wisdom and discernment.

9 AL RHEA Cru, USA/Southern and Eastern Africa

Pray for a stable internet connection in Ethiopia. It has been difficult to get prayer requests. Thank God for His protection, despite some deaths, resulting from civil unrest in parts of the country. Please pray for people in Southern and Eastern Africa (SEA) who are suffering from many of the same attacks we are, but without the opportunities we have for treatments. The effects of the lockdowns are destroying many livelihoods. Pray for many to come to Christ as a result of the various ingenious ways of presenting the Gospel digitally. Praise God for the addition of a new Ministry Component (Global Church Movement) to our ministry.

10 J & P Central Africa

Pray today as J & P will receive several new workers at the ministry. They will stay about three weeks for their quarantine, then for an orientation time. Please pray that all will go smoothly for them as they travel and begin to learn the culture.

11 FOTIS AND MARY ROMEOS AMG, Greece

Pray for the relationship with the state of Turkey as the tension in Eastern Mediterranean is currently very sensitive; pray for peace in the region. Pray for their fall programs as they try to reschedule all the activities in small groups for safety purposes.

12 RICK & ELIZABETH ARNOLD Pioneers, Inc., West Africa

Praise Jesus they have a well! It is being hand-dug, and there is water at 35 feet. It is being carefully structured so it will not fall in. Thank you for all your prayers and finances to make this possible!

13 GARY & ESTHER SMITH Ethnos360, Papua New Guinea

The Smiths and their team (along with the rest of the world) are dealing with some unique circumstances related to the COVID-19 crisis. Getting missionaries back to the field is proving very difficult. Pray that key people will be able to return to their mission fields.

14 ANDREA & EMORY FLEMING Operation Mobilization, Ireland

Emory and Andrea have been asked to help and be part of a coordinating team who look after "Partners for Church Growth." The team includes long-term OM workers placed around the country in various churches. Please pray for them as they accept this new challenge.

15 CF

The Lord has called CF to work in another country for the fall semester. This includes a team of seven other displaced East Asia staff and interns. They will move in September. CF is grateful for the support, prayers and partnership of the FBA family. Her heart is still to reach lost students for Christ in East Asia. Please pray for the borders to open in January 2021 so that they can fly straight to East Asia from their ministry location.

16 STEPHEN MCCONNEL Wycliffe Bible Translators, USA

Pray for wisdom in keeping my mother and myself safe as the COVID-19 virus cases increase in our town. Pray for wisdom as we work on Bloom to make it more useful worldwide.

17 RICK & MARY LYNN ATHERTON Campus Crusade for Christ, South Africa

Pray for the project Rick is working on to convert to a new financial platform. Thankfully, there's a Cru global team who are helping them. Nonetheless, it is taking longer than anticipated.

18 LUC & SUZY SALSAC Vianova, Belgium

Pray for the team of Vianova's leaders as they deal with so many issues and difficulties due to the coronavirus situation. Many things have been postponed. It surely brings new challenges.

19 KEITH & JACI PATMAN Wycliffe Bible Translators, USA/Central Africa

Praise God for the safe delivery of the published Gergiko and Mango NT translations to the designated destination. Continue to pray that portions of God's Word that are already available will lead people in many language communities to new birth and life in Jesus Christ.

20 GÉRARD & ANNE CHALVET

Christian Missions in Many Lands, Inc., France

Gérard continues to lead their church as an elder during a transitional time – five elders resigned last summer. Pray for wisdom, love and strength from the Spirit. Young believers in their church of 175 members are stepping into key roles and being disciplined to make disciples. On September 20, they will have the joy of baptizing two adult men as new believers!

21 BILL & JOY BOEROP

World Thrust International, USA/Worldwide

The doctor extended Joy's physical therapy because she wasn't doing so well. Some days are harder than others! They are hopeful that the surgery will resolve the neuropathy in her leg.

22 T & A

Central Asia

Pray for their friends in Central Asia. COVID-19 cases began to increase just after they left. One of their local partners in ministry has endured and survived the coronavirus. Others are struggling with economic challenges from the quarantine. The women's team A has risen to the occasion, as many opportunities arise to serve the community through digital seminars on various topics targeting specific felt needs.

23 KATHRYN WURST

CMF International, Germany

The team finished up their semester well and went on a retreat at the beginning of August to celebrate their teammates who are finishing their time on the team and moving on to new things. Pray for the remaining four team members to adjust well and adapt to the new responsibilities.

24 BELA & ILDIKO DOBOS

Word of Life Hungary, Hungary

Praise the Lord that their summer camp was at max capacity this summer. In the first six weeks they had 661 campers on site and over 200 in their day camps in local churches. In the sixth week of their camp they rejoice with 126 decisions and 65 dedications this summer. Pray for the enrollment of their Bible Institute this fall, as they will be allowed to start classroom teaching in September again (Lord willing) with over 50 students.

25 BEVERLY MINOR

Central Missionary Clearinghouse, Austria

Pray for Beverly and the Longfield choir as they make final preparations for a concert on Sunday, September 27.

26 KIRK & CINDY FLANEGAN

Wycliffe Bible Translators, USA

The Flanegans are very encouraged for the huge blessing of Wycliffe Bible translators starting 138 Bible translation projects this past year. The Lord is providing open doors and more unreached people groups are asking for help to provide God's living Word for their people.

27 LEAH RIGSBY

Wycliffe Bible Translators, Papua New Guinea

Leah is the Missionary Guest for the Adventures in Missions meeting today, September 27, via Zoom.

28 DIANE HARRINGTON

e3 Partners Ministry, USA

Please remember to be in prayer daily for all our police across the nation! Touching Ladies for Christ (TLC) Bible Study raised almost $900 to support and encourage our local police with gift cards to various eateries.

29 DALE HOSKINS

Wycliffe Bible Translators, USA/Africa

Pray for the Cicipu Bible translation project in northern Nigeria. Their community continues to experience threats from the Fulani tribesman. Pray that the coronavirus will roll back so Dale can visit the team again by November. Praise for the encouragement and development from the bi-weekly training meetings Dale is facilitating for our Bible translation corps consultants around the world.

30 ALAN & LYNEE WARD

Wycliffe Bible Translators, USA

Pray for their work on one of the most complex scripts in the world. At the end of March, they released test versions of the main fonts of the work. These support hundreds of languages that need Bible translation in the Americas, Europe, much of Africa, the Pacific and Russia. They also provide translators with special symbols needed for New Testament Greek and to scientifically describe the sounds in any language. Pray for God's guidance.

“THEREFORE, MY BELOVED BRETHREN, BE STEADFAST, IMMOVABLE, ALWAYS ABOUNDING IN THE WORK OF THE LORD, KNOWING THAT YOUR TOIL IS NOT IN VAIN IN THE LORD.”
